COLONEL BOLESŁAW ORLIŃSKI PILOT SCHOLARSHIP ADMINISTERED BY CANADIAN POLISH MILLENNIUM FUND

Polish pilot, Colonel Bolesław Orliński (1899-1992), was a genius flyer, who set many records in his time. Col. Bolesław Orliński was a generous man who, in his last will and testament donated part of his wealth to create a trust fund in his name. This trust fund is administered by the Canadian Polish Millennium Fund. According to Col. Orliński's wish, part of the trust fund was specifically set up as a scholarship for training young Polish pilots or Canadian pilots of Polish descent .

Applications for the Pilot's Scholarship should be sent to the Canadian Polish Millennium Fund, at the address shown above no later than by April 15th of each year.

The following persons may apply for Col. Bolesław Orliński's pilot scholarship:

1. Canadians of Polish descent (must have documents as proof of Polish descent)
2. Polish Youth (residing in Poland or Canada).

Requirements:

1. Applicant must provide as proof documents of enrolment in a flying school.
2. Provide a one page essay about the life and achievements of Col. Bolesław Orliński.
